

Eugene Franklin Keaton

January 12, 1915 - January 22, 2004

EUGENE FRANKLIN KEATON, son of the late Crit and Anner Keaton, was born on January 12, 1915 in McDowell County, Marion, North Carolina. He departed this life on January 22, 2004 after a brief illness at Union Memorial Hospital. He received his formal education in the public schools of Marion, North Carolina. He was married to the former Lillian Daniels in 1937 and they traveled to Baltimore in 1942. Out of this union one son, Joseph, was born. In 1980, Eugene retired after thirty-three years as a roofer for the Baltimore City Department of Housing and Community Development. He then began a rich full life devoted to family and friends. He joined Southern Baptist Church in Baltimore and remained a devoted member. "Gene," as he was fondly referred to by all, was a man who enjoyed the simple things of life. He loved to play cards and have family and friends over for his "down home soul food cooking." "Gene's" wit was quick and sharp. He could always make you laugh. Often, just the gestures of his eyes and lips making his comments would bring the whole room to roaring laughter. Even the young were drawn to "Gene." His witty, hilarious sense of humor and distinctive laugh was contagious. He will be missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: his devoted son, Joseph Keaton, Sr.; daughter-in-law, Doris A. Keaton; his ex-wife and lifelong friend, Lillian D. Keaton; five grandchildren, Nicole M. Quesada, James E. Alderman, Jr., Joseph R. Keaton, Jr. Frederica D. Keaton and Marcellina M. Keaton; thirteen great-grandchildren, Linda, Alyssa, Drenico, Laura, Shane, Ashlee, Sydney, Alanna, Joseph III, Cristian, James III, Diamond and Maraje; nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Family and friends, I am truly sorry to hear of the loss of "Gene". Losing a loved one is not easy and at that time you need comfort. This comfort that you need can be found in God's Book. Scriptures such as John 5:28,29, where a hope of a resurrection can be found, along with many more will give you the comfort you need in your time of grief.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ to the family of Mr. Keaton i give my very deep sympathy. for all of us who have lost a loved one in death, the Bible holds out much comfort and hope for a future with those we have lost when, as it states, the dead will be resurrected. what a joyous time that will be for us, what wonderful a provision from Jehovah for us still alive, to take advantage of by our obedience to Him now. Proverbs3:5,6 says that if we do what God requires he will help us to do what pleases him, thereby setting ourselves up for many grand blessings, such as the resurrection hope.
