

Eugene Johnson

July 16, 1926 - April 7, 2009

Eugene “Moe” Johnson, a man who boldly professed and proclaimed a relationship with his Savior, was born in Hartwell, Georgia on July 16, 1926 to the late Harrison and Fannie Johnson. After a life of “good days” and “bad days”, Eugene breathed his last breath on Tuesday, April 7, 2009, and was called home to finally rest in the eternal glory of his Shepherd. Eugene was educated in Georgia. He retired from American Standard and the City of Baltimore. He enjoyed his retirement to the fullest. He was an excellent cook and enjoyed eating Kentucky Fried Chicken, rice and sweet potato pie. Eugene took pleasure in a good game of checkers with his children and grandchildren. To his family, he was the “Checkers King”. Eugene, a husband, father, grandfather, friend and so much more, was a man who loved to laugh and simply enjoy life. There was a dull moment when Eugene was in the room. In his own unique way, he would commonly narrate stories of his life experiences. Some made you think, while most made you laugh. With a life filled with laughter and smiles, Eugene was definitely a man who lived out the scripture The Joy of the Lord is my Strength. Eugene attempted and excelled in spreading his joy and laughter to all who knew him. Eugene continually expressed this joy and love to his family. It began on May 1, 1953, when he married the love of his life, Thomasine Johnson, who has preceded him in death. From this union of over fifty years, they begot and raised eight beautiful children. Eugene was more than just a husband and a father, but he was certainly a man of faith. In this faith, he would pray without ceasing and continue to call on the name of Jesus. He would encourage and uplift himself with old hymns and songs that inspired him to “hold on a little while longer”. As Eugene continued to build his faith, he would listen to his favorite preacher, Bishop Gilbert Earl (G.E) Patterson as he encouraged most to “be healed, be delivered, and be set free.” Eugene leaves to cherish his memory: his eight children, Deborah Vaughn, Yusef Shabazz, Ronald Johnson, William Johnson, Anthony Johnson, Cherita James, James Johnson, and Michael Johnson; son-in-law, Jeffery James; four daughters-in-law, Vera Shabazz, Nina Johnson, Towanda Johnson and Shirley Johnson; one brother, Cleo Johnson; one sister, Rose Lee Wiley; fourteen grandchildren, Joseph, Shirelle, Andrew, Kareen, Anwar, Ajuewa, Davon, Will, Chiquita, Terrell, Ayana, Kevin, Devin and Michael Jr.; nine great-grandchildren, Jaylon, Asher, Marquise, Marcus, Micah, Ariel, Rashad, Jamir and Jaiden; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am so very sorry that you lost your dear loved one. It is truly devastating to lose someone you love, and it seems so unfair to the family. Did you know that God didnot purpose for people to die? He desires all to repent, and have the opportunity for everlasting life. He took steps to ensure that this will happen in the near future. By sending his beloved son, Jesus, he made the way out for us to be forgiven for our sins and obtain eternal life. John 3:16 says, "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son so that everyone exercising faith in him, might not be destroyed but have everlasting life." One day the dead will be ressurected back to life, because Acts 24:15 lets us know that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. May it comfort you to know that your loved one is in the best hands possible; in the memory of our loving father Jehovah above. He is the God of all salvation, and only he knows the ways out from death. Psalm 68:20. May you be comforted by this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
