“ I know you don't know me, but I saw Eugene's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.

As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.' Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, "Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise." Jesus statement meant that "All" the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!

I hope these words serve as encouragement. Remain loyal and keep serving God; you will see Eugene again!

“ God blessed me with at least 1 of everything. 1 grandmother 1 aunt and 1 uncle; needless to say you were my one and only uncle. Im grateful to God that He allowed me to be with you that Saturday night, because He allowed me to mend a bridge that I had been working on for some time. Im grateful to the Lord for you not suffering anymore. Im thankful for the few laughs we had that Saturday night, You smiled for me, when you were at your weakest, now I ask God to smile upon you my uncle..Tell Love I said Hi..You will always be loved and you will be missed... cause you were small but all my uncle Genie

“ You fought a good fight, Genie, but God knew you were ready to come home. I feel blessed that I was able to share so much with you over the past few years; we could laugh, talk, remember old times and talk trash! We shared secrets and dreams. My heart is heavy, but I am not sad. My God tells me I will see you, Love and Hun at the Final Call. Rest now, baby boy, and know that you will always and forever be in my heart. With much love, Puddin, your big sis!

“ Losing someone that was truly loved is difficult. The Bible comforts us at Ecclesiates 3:11. “Everything he has made pretty in its time. Even to time indefinite he has put in their hearts.”
