

Eugene Poole

July 13, 1962 - August 30, 2009

Eugene Poole, Sr., affectionately known as “Nudy”, son of the late Garland Bernard Poole and Virginia Elizabeth Poole, was born on July 13, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the fourth of five children. At a tender age Eugene moved with his family to Danville, Virginia where he was raised and educated until the age of 16. At the age of 16 he and his family moved back to Baltimore, Maryland where Eugene continued his education at Frederick Douglas High School. Although he enjoyed many sports he only played football while at Frederick Douglas. His excellence in athletics earned him the title “the athlete”. It was there at Frederick Douglas, he met his soul mate for life Cynthia Dargan, affectionately nicknamed by Eugene as “Cynt”. Even as a child Eugene enjoyed being around people older than him. He would follow his older sister Ginger around all day and would talk about her in his sleep. How forth telling that as an adult Eugene would build his career, which he enjoyed immensely, around working with the elderly. Living in Baltimore often made him homesick for Danville Virginia. Eugene would speak of eventually moving back with his wife and children. After High School, Eugene had many trials and tribulations. But through his soul mate Cynthia he was introduced to the Lord Jesus Christ. In February 1994, Eugene was baptized in the name of The Lord Jesus Christ and received the Gift of The Holy Ghost at Apostolic Bible Study Church under the pastorate of Elder Arthur Coleman, Sr. From that time forward Eugene always gave God’s word. Out of his faithfulness to God Eugene held many offices at ABSC. He was Chair of the Outreach Team,

Chair of the Altar Workers, Assistant to Men's Ministry, Member of the Men's Choir, and was the first ordained Deacon under Elder Arthur Coleman. On August 27, 1994 Eugene and Cynthia were married and from this union four beautiful children were born. Deacon Poole's favorite words were "be encouraged". He was known for witnessing to everyone everywhere he went. He never missed an opportunity to share the gospel. Deacon Poole's enjoyed spending time with his family especially with his two grandchildren Ty and Brooks. He enjoyed and loved God's word, He enjoyed traveling, he enjoyed talking with everyone especially the elderly, and he enjoyed watching football. Deacon Poole leaves to cherish has memories, his wife Cynthia, 4 children, Tyra, Eugene Jr., Stacey and Tracey' 2 grandchildren Ty and Brook; his mother Virginia "Jenni", 2 brothers Garland and Jeff Pooles; 2 sisters Ginger and Wesley Ann; 4 uncles Waydell, Bishop Poole, Lee and Gill; 3 aunts Esther, Shirdina and Clara May and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Eugene Poole

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ So heavy on my mind lately.

Tyra - May 10, 2019 at 02:52 AM

“ Roberta Womack sent a virtual gift in memory of Eugene Poole

Roberta Womack - November 28, 2018 at 02:12 PM

“ Just thinking of you today Eugene with much love💕

Roberta Womack - November 28, 2018 at 01:59 PM

“ Roberta Womack sent a virtual gift in memory of Eugene Poole

Roberta Womack - August 02, 2016 at 06:13 PM

RW

“ Roberta Womack lit a candle in memory of Eugene Poole

Roberta Womack - January 18, 2014 at 03:01 PM

RW

“ Eugene, I wished I could've been at you're home going celebration. I know you have gone on to a better place where there is no pain and suffering. You are greatly missed. I hope to see you again one day when I get my wings. Your cousin, Roberta

Roberta Womack - January 17, 2014 at 11:06 PM

TP

“ I stayed at your house, slept in your bed and had a really realistic dream about you last night. I dreamed that you was on a verge of complete healing in your body. I guess I was just thinking about you heavily because it is the New Year. Much celebration has been going on because of the arrival of 2014. I can't imagine the celebration that is daily happening where there is no time or turning of calendars. I'm glad you made it there and that in Heaven in the arms of Jesus the Almighty is where your healing truly is. I know you don't see this, but it makes me feel better. Miss you and love you. Your daughter, Tyra.

Tyra Poole - January 01, 2014 at 01:33 PM

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon he will by means of his son Christ Jesus, bring our 'enemt to nothing' (1Corinthians 15:26). What a wonderful day that will be!”

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time. Please take time to read these scriptures: Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.”

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Cynthia, there are no words that I can say that would fully explain how saddened we are to hear about Poole. We will continue to lift you and your children up in prayer, and we want you to know that God is willing and able to carry you through. May God bless you and keep you. We love you. Bruce & Tonya”

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM