Life's Reflections

Knowing that God is in control, after a long illness, he saw fit to bring the life of Eugene Christopher Simmons to a close on Monday, March 11, 2024 at MedStar Harbor Hospital, Baltimore, Maryland.

Eugene, also known as Christopher, was born on May 25, 1966 in Manhattan County, New York City. He was the only child of the late Barbara Ann Simmons (nee Whittaker) and the late Anthony Turner.

Due to Eugene's mother's military service, Eugene spent his youth in New York City, Washington, DC, Ipswich, England, Village of Yigo, Guam and Edwards, California.

In 1984, Eugene graduated from Desert Junior-Senior High in Edwards, California. Upon graduating high school, Eugene returned to Washington, DC for a semester internship at the Washington Media Institute. Eugene worked as an intern at top organizations such as: NBC News, WJLA TV/DT Washington, DC and ABC News.

Eugene loved working as an event promoter. Eugene started his own company ECS Events where he promoted concerts, festivals, conferences, and sporting events. Also, his company managed up-and-coming young Washington, DC local talent.

Eugene was engaged to LaTasha Iwan Bowser, the mother of his son, Christopher Simmons. LaTasha departed this life on September 21, 2006 before they could make a public declaration to their union of holy matrimony.

Eugene's loving memory will be cherished by his son, Christopher Simmons of Washington, DC, granddaughter Ariyanna Simmons of Maryland and grandson Reign Simmons of Washington, DC, and his aunt Gloria Whittaker-Driver of Raleigh, NC.

Although Eugene had been incapacitated for more than eleven years, he found ways to keep up with his many relatives and friends. All those whom he kept in contact with will miss his cell phone calls and Facebook post.

O Lord, let eternal rest be granted unto Eugene Christopher Simmons; and let perpetual light shine upon Eugene Christopher. May Eugene Christopher rest in peace. Amen
