

Eugene Simms

October 31, 1951 - June 28, 2020

Eugene Allen Simms was born on October 31, 1951 in Washington, D.C to his late parents Norma and George. Eugene died peacefully the morning of June 28, 2020 in Baltimore, MD at the age of 68.

Eugene was an accomplished student and athlete. He attended Cardozo Senior High School, where he earned the moniker, “Superman” Simms, for his feats. Eugene graduated from Morgan State University. While attending, Eugene was named MEAC Defensive Player of the Year in 1973 and was named to the Dean’s List on three occasions.

Eugene was an entrepreneur. In the 1990’s, Eugene owned and operated a small grocery store in Baltimore and a restaurant in Annapolis, MD with his wife Bridget.

Eugene was also a public servant. Over the course of his life he served as a teacher in Washington, D.C., a police officer in Prince George’s County, and a correctional officer with the State of Maryland. Eugene retired from employment in 2016.

Eugene was a kind-hearted man who lived a life devoted to others. Eugene believed deeply in the value of education and hard work. Eugene trumpeted these values to all he knew.

Eugene is survived by his four children Antoine, Whitney, Eugene, and Corey; his sister Ruby; his nieces Vanessa and Deborah; and his nephew Eugene. Eugene leaves a host of other family and friends to mourn.
