

Eugene Street

October 3, 1952 - October 28, 2002

Eugene “Gino” Street was the third son born to Lucy and the late Walter Street on October 3, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. In 1962, he was baptized and confirmed at the Cherry Hill Community Presbyterian Church. He departed this life on October 28, 2002. Affectionately known as “Gino,” he received his education in Baltimore City public schools, a graduate of Carver Vocational and Technical High School. Gino was an outstanding high school basketball player during his years at Carver. He was employed by Citywide Management for several years and held several maintenance and handyman positions over the years. “Gino” was best known as a person who possessed qualities that often left people smiling once he came in contact with them. His humor, antics and pranks provided laughter and conversation for many children and adults. “Gino” made numerous friends wherever he went and will be deeply missed by those who knew him. He was known and loved by many relatives and friends. He leaves to cherish fond memories: his beloved mother, Lucy Street; his loving children, Eugene Jr., Keon and Tiffany; four brothers, Walter, Calvin, Reginald and Jerry Street; three sisters-in-law, Yvette, Sheila and LaVerne; four nephews, one niece, uncles, aunts, cousins, other relatives and friends.
