

Eula Mae Jennings

November 21, 1913 - March 12, 2006

Eula Mae Jennings, fell into eternal life on Sunday, March 12, 2006. Eula Mae was born to the late Henry and Hattie Lightfoot on November 21, 1913 in Winfall, North Carolina. Eula Mae enjoyed a very good childhood where she attended Perquimans Elementary and High School, where she graduated. Eula Mae moved to Baltimore with her family where she met the late Stephen Wesson and they married. Out of that union she had four children, Stephen C. Wesson, Norman Wesson, Cottrell Wesson and the late Celestine Bowles. They both worked hard to give their children a better life. Over the years Eula Mae has worked many jobs to keep her family together and to keep food on the table. In 1956, Eula Mae married James Jennings. They did not have any children, but James helped her to finish raising her children, he was a good man. Eula Mae was a deeply spiritual and religious child of God. She was one of the first founding members of High Rock Baptist Church. She was the pianist for the Ellis Specials for twelve years when Arralia Lyle (sister), Dixie Lightfoot (sister-in-law) and the late, Hattie Lightfoot (ma-ma, her mother) all sung together all over Baltimore and North Carolina for High Rock Baptist Church and many other churches. Eula Mae was a very kind hearted soul, she who extends a helping hand to anyone and everyone in need. She loved all of her children, grandchildren, family and extended family with all of her heart. Eula Mae had a passion for playing the piano that she taught her children and many others how to play. She played at Corner Stone Baptist Church for many years. Eula Mae enjoyed taking care of dogs, raising and growing flowers and plants, and being a people person. She truly loved anything and everything that God created. Anyone who has ever been in Eula Mae's present knew that she truly was one of God's children. Eula Mae leaves to mourn three sons, Stephen Wesson, Norman Wesson, Cottrell Wesson; one sister, Arralia Lyle; three daughters-in-law, ten grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren, five nephews, five nieces and other relatives and friends.

“ I send my condolences to the entire family. There is also a hope for us at Acts 24:15. It tells us we have "a hope towards God...that there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous". So you can be with your loved one again. May you be comforted.##imported-begin##Kendra A##imported-end##

“ Death is something that really hits us hard. We never want to see our loved ones depart from us. We miss them so very much. Thankfully Jehovah God has a purpose to take the sting of death out of our lives completely. 1st Cor.15"26 tells us that, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." By means of the resurrection, all have an opportunity to live again in peace and happiness. Acts 24"15 tells us that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." May the hope of seeing your loved one again bring you some comfort at this time.##imported-begin##R JohnaonrrR##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
