

Eular Lee Chavis

July 16, 1923 - February 21, 2017

A Time to Be Born and a Time To Die

EULAR LEE (HOLMES) CHAVIS was born on July 17, 1923 to the union of Robert and Savannah (Rogers) Holmes in Lee County, South Carolina. Early Tuesday morning, February 21, 2017 at Good Samaritan Hospital, she heard God's voice "well done my good and faithful servant well done. It's time to come home." Always obedient of God's words, she spread her wings and took flight for her Heavenly home.

A Time To Plant

Eular attended public school in Lee County, South Carolina. Born into a Christian Family, she was baptized at an early age. Her Christian walk was always at the forefront of her daily journey throughout her life. After moving to Baltimore, she joined Eastern Methodist Church under Pastor Beverly Hargrove at Eden and Hoffman Streets. She served on the Usher Board, Senior Choir, Alter Guild, was a Sunday School Teacher, Communication Steward and member of the Methodist Women's Group. She remained very active in her church until her health declined She was a Mother or Granny to many children and adults in her church home.

A Time To Love

In 1941, Eular Lee Holmes married Derrill James Chavis, and from this union three daughters, were born. Velva D. Foster, Virginia Chavis and Gloria Hester. Later another daughter was added to the Chavis family, Joyce (Wynn) Dawkins, Goddaughter; and a short while after Eular's nephew, Thaddeus Holmes completed the growing family.

A Time To Build Up

In 1941, the newlyweds migrated to Baltimore, Maryland where James (Rooster as she fondly called him) was seeking better employment opportunities. Although, James was a country boy, his goal was to move to a big city so that he could provide the quality of life he felt his new bride so richly deserved. Baltimore was a great place to plant their roots. Eular was very skillful and a go getter herself. She had an entrepreneur spirit and was very good with her mind and hands. She created her own employment opportunities through starting a cleaning service. The clients she served held high positions in the fields of industry, law and medicine.
