

Eunice S. Carter

June 25, 1921 - May 19, 2015

Eunice Sylvia Carter was born on June 25, 1921 in Atlantic City, New Jersey. She was the only child to the late James E. Hall and the late Julia S. Hall.

Eunice received her education in Atlantic City, New Jersey public schools. She was employed and retired from the United States Internal Revenue after 35 years of service. She received the Mayor's Citation from Kurt Schmoke, Mayor of Baltimore City. And was active in her church before taking ill.

Eunice was married to the late Charles L. Carter, Sr. of 68 years. Out of their union the late Charles L. Carter, Jr. was born.

Eunice was known to all as "Grandma". She loved to travel all over the United States. She enjoyed going to Casinos and going for long rides with her late husband in their clean shiny Cadillac and their dog Prince, but most of all Eunice loved spending time with her family. She was loved by her family. After the recent passing of her husband, her grandkids wrapped their loving arms around her with daily care, love, and protection.

Eunice leaves to celebrate her life, a very dedicated and loving daughter in law, Roberta "Berdy" Carter. Three grandchildren Charles Carter III, Antonio Carter and Sylvia Carter. She was a Great Grand Ma as well- Charles Carter III, Justin, Jayquan, Daeshawn, Markel, Makaila, Aniyah, Sean, and Ayanna.

Two Granddaughters in-law, Martina and Tywana and a host of relatives and friends.
