

Eunice J. Holloway

December 21, 1932 - August 31, 2019

Eunice Jackson Cook Holloway, lovingly known as “Dolly,” the daughter of the late Charles and Sophie Cook, was born on December 21, 1932. God called Eunice to her heavenly home on August 31, 2019.

At a young age she accepted the calling of Christ in her life, and soon after, became a member of the Mount Carmel Church of God in Christ. She was an active participant in several church ministries including singing in the choir, Sunday School Teacher, and church announcer. Eunice was a firm believer in James 2:26, “Faith without works is dead.”

Desiring to continue growing in faith and wisdom of God's word, she joined the Central Church of Christ, to strengthen her knowledge and understanding of the power and love of Christ as her Savior. She was well loved and received by congregation members.

She was married to the late Edward Benjamin Holloway Sr. and from this union they had two children, Edward Benjamin Holloway Jr. and Jeana Denice (Holloway) Futrell. Eunice was educated in the Baltimore, Maryland school system. She started working at an early age. She worked as a housekeeper in the hotel industry. She worked for over twenty years with the retail store Hutzler's located in downtown Baltimore, as a seamstress in their alterations department. She worked for several years as a crossing guard and custodian for the Baltimore County Public School System.

Eunice was an excellent cook who loved preparing dishes and meals for family and friends. "Aunt Dolly" loved her family and was loved by all her family. She was always interested in the wellbeing of her children and all her nieces and nephews as they matured in their formative, growing years. She opened the doors of her home to any of her young relatives who needed a place to stay. Although she was strict disciplinarian, her love and focus centered on raising responsible, productive adults, giving them, and all those under the sphere of her influence opportunity to grow spiritually and productively. Throughout her life, in a clear strong voice, she was known to spontaneously sing songs of God's goodness, mercies, and love. Eunice was a classy dresser, always stylishly coordinated and always ready with an encouraging word.

Preceding her in death were her brothers Bo, and Paul aka "Bay," and her sisters Gertrude, and Ruth. She leaves loving memories to be cherished by her baby sister Geraldine Phillips (Leroy), her children Edward (Dollie) and Jeana, grandchildren Donnell, LaShawn (Jeff), Danielle (Jerrick), Eddie, Stephen (Roxanne), Terrell, Jerry II, Angela, and Deborah. And a host of great grandchildren, great, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews, relatives and friends. Special love and appreciation go out to her nephew Carroll Shaw (Sharon) who faithfully visited, supported and cared for his Aunt Dolly throughout her memorable journey in life.
