

Eunice White Knight

May 13, 1929 - January 11, 2013

Eunice White Knight was called home on Friday, January 11, 2013. She was the daughter of the late Charlie and Maria White of North Carolina.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her loving daughter, Joyce Knight, her devoted grandson, Allen J. Cotman, two sisters, Helen Norman and Maggie Powell, one brother, Henry White (Edna Mae), and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Eunice was born in Northhampton County, North Carolina. She grew up and flourished in the small town of Murfreesboro, North Carolina. She graduated from high school and decided to try her luck in the "big city."

She moved to Richmond, Virginia in the 1950's to attend nursing school. However, she soon learned that she couldn't deal with the sight of blood, so she decided to attend tailoring school instead.

While she attended school, she worked at Slaughter's Restaurant where she met and married Allen Knight, Jr. a local disc jockey. Eunice retired from AT&T Communications, where she worked for 25 years.

Eunice loved life, her family and friends. She was an excellent cook and always enjoyed having people around to enjoy a good meal. She also enjoyed traveling and especially loved to visit casinos and play the slot machines.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your family at this time. In times of distress, we need comfort that soothes our heart, our mind and our emotions. Please read 1 John 3:19-22; 5:14, 15.

M. Hodge - January 15, 2013 at 10:01 AM

“ Losing someone that was truly loved is difficult. The Bible comforts us at Ecclesiastes 3:11. “Everything he has made pretty in its time. Even to time indefinite he has put in their hearts.”

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
