

Eunice O. Richardson

December 28, 1937 - March 26, 2025

Eunice O. Richardson, daughter of the late Essie Hunt and Woodrow Baker, was born on December 28, 1937 in Campbell County, Virginia on the Farm at Red Hill.

Eunice received her education in the public school system, with completion in Baltimore City Public Schools. She accepted Christ at an early age, and over the years attended Cornerstone Church of Christ under the leadership of Rev. I. Logan Kearsse.

Eunice was a hard and faithful worker, as evidenced by her being employed by Johns Hopkins Hospital for more than 50 years. Her time spent in Hopkins employ was a Lab Technician and a Food Service Provider.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Nathaniel Richardson; her son Anthony Blackwell; sister Josephine Stewart; brother James Baker; and grandson Vincent C. Blackwell, III.

On March 26, 2025 Eunice, with no forewarning, left this earthly realm to receive her heavenly reward. She leaves to cherish fond memories, her son; Vincent C. Blackwell, Jr.; William Baker, and Robert Hunt; grandchildren: Rasheeta, Nicole, and Anthony; fifteen great-grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren, an a host of other relatives and friends.
