“ Viola C. Anderson would like to extend her deepest sympathy to the Family for the loss of their love one. Aldenette was more than a cousin to me, she was like a sister, and a close friend. She had a kind disposition with a laughter that made you feel welcomed to be in her presence. She showed perseverance and faith. She was helpful to me in working with my oldest sister who was a Nursing Home, and who preceded her in death. I remember when Aldenette used her vehicle, which accommodated a wheelchair patient, to help me take my sister from the Nursing Home to go shopping. She thanked me for asking her. She cherished that shopping time as much as my sister and me. Let knowing how loving and caring Aldenette was, along with your other special memories be a comfort to you always.
