

Eva Bivens

January 26, 1920 - February 23, 2005

Eva Faircloth Bivens was the third of eight children born to the union of John David Faircloth and Bessie Stewart Faircloth. She was born January 26, 1920, in Garland, North Carolina. After a lengthy illness, she departed this life at the Stella Maris Hospice at Mercy Hospital. Eva grew up in Garland, N. C. and graduated from the Garland High School. She joined the St. Stevens Methodist Church in Garland as a youngster. As a young adult Eva moved to Baltimore City. She joined the Pennsylvania Avenue A. M. E. Zion Church. She sang on the choir for a number of years. Eva delighted in hearing the word of God and serving others. She served on the Life Members Council and was a visitor through the Lifeline Ministry. Eva was married to George Bivens who preceded her in death. Although Eva was childless, she claimed many children as her own. She held her niece Yvonne for her blessing as a baby and spoke of her "as my child" whom she called "Vonnie." Being fashionably dressed was Eva's trademark. She took pride in looking good. Her home was a show place for cleanliness and the yard for flowers. Her zeal for keeping homes clean enabled her to make a living as a worker for several families. Eva loved to be with people. She loved to shop and to travel. Eva leaves to cherish their memories: one sister, Gladys Brunson of Hamden, Connecticut; nieces, nephews, cousins, sisters-in-law, great nieces, great nephews, god-children, other relatives and a host of friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Eva Bivens

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Eva Bivens

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. Please be comforted by the divinely inspired promise at John 5:28,29- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May this loving promise give you comfort and solace in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation.
2Corinthian 1:3-4##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM