

Eva Robinson Cooper

November 19, 1923 - January 17, 2015

Our beloved Eva Robinson Cooper, 91, of Richmond, Virginia lost her battle to Alzheimer's on Saturday, January 17, 2015. She was born to the late Elnora Jackson on November 19, 1923. She was an only child. She received her education from Richmond Public Schools and graduated from Armstrong High. At an early age she married the late Charlie (Doc) Cooper and had four children, Frederick Lee Cooper (Carolyn), the late Shirley Cooper-Harris, Charlie Cooper, Jr. and Joyce Cooper-Kemp (Berry).

Eva was a longtime member of Mosby Memorial Baptist Church for more than 70 years. She devoted time as an usher in her early years. Even during her battle with her illness, she looked forward to attending church on some Sundays with her family.

Eva was a kind and gentle soul with the biggest heart one could imagine. She spent her life taking care of and doing for others. She was a loving and compassionate person who would go out of her way to do for family and others. She would give a stranger a place to rest his/her head and food to eat. Her undying love for others made her a giant in life. She cherished time spent with family and enjoyed family gathers and always looked forward to events when all family members could get together. She enjoyed cooking and cleaning, and no matter what time of day or night you dropped by her home, she would go out of her way to prepare something for you to eat. Our family will miss her dearly and she will be remembered for her loving and compassionate ways, her loving smile, her warm spirit and her kindness.

“ No matter at what age a person die, it hurts to see them go. Our heavenly father knows this. This is why he made us a promise. This promise is in his Holy Bible, at Isaiah 25:8, "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." And at 1Corinthian 15:26 it say, "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing."

We know this to be true, because at Numbers 23:19 it says, "God is not a mere man who tells lies." So if Jehovah God say, he is going to wipe away the tears from all our faces; and tears of sorrow will vanish; no one will die from natural causes or weep. Rest assured it will happen, because "it is impossible for God to lie."

May you find comfort in these promises. As well as knowing that our heavenly father is there for you. At 2 Corinthian 1:2,3 it tells us he is a God of all comfort." May you allow him to comfort you at this time.
