“ *I am so sorry to learn of your loss, please accept my condolences. I hope you are finding comfort in family and friends. The Bible is helpful at John 5:28,29 "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those on the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out,..". “ Miss Dean, Donna, Terita & Family: I'm so sorry that I wasn't able to be there today to celebrate Miss Eva's homegoing with you. I will truly miss her as a part of my life growing up on Clifton Avenue. It seems as if all of the people who raised or helped to raise me have gone on to Heaven now- my Mother and Grandma Nettie, Miss Eva, Mr Eugene...and I am saddened that we no longer have them here on Earth with us. But my spirit is uplifted that we will one day all be reunited in Glory. Please know that Justin and I are praying for all of you and you are in our thoughts and hearts. We will come and see you soon. Love, Kim & Justin Jones##imported-begin##Kimberly Jones##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. During this difficult time, you can find comfort in God's word. There we find the promise at Revelation 21:3,4 where God promises that one day soon, all things that cause us pain, including the loss of a dear loved one, will be a thing of the past. Jehovah provides a solid basis for us to have a confidence that we will see our family again.##imported-begin##April Robinson##imported-end##

“ Dear family, please accept my deepest sympathy for your great loss. Though a stranger to your family, I am no stranger to the pain and heartache death brings with it and I just want to share a comforting verse from God's holy writings in hopes that you may be strengthtned. At Isaiah 26:19, Almighty God promises, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust..." How would you like to see your loved one again, is it possible? Of course; with God all things are possible. Do we have to die in order to see our loved ones again? Of course not; not according to the scriptures. It doesn't say we have to die, but THEY will live, they will rise up, and have much reason to cry out joyfully. May we all look forward to this grand time in which this promise will soon be fulfilled. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
