

Mrs. Eva L. Hunt

April 14, 1939 - March 21, 2026

EVA L. HUNT, the daughter of the late Virginia and Cleophas P. Garrett was born on April 14, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland.

With her siblings Alice, Patricia, Christina, William and Gwendolyn, Eva grew up in Baltimore City and attended the public schools. After completing high school, she worked as a custodial aide for Loyal High School and subsequently, she was employed at several local laundries in the Baltimore area. Throughout, she carried herself with dignity and she possessed a strong work ethic. Her life was rooted in faith, family and quiet strength.

On September 7, 1988, Eva and Clarence Hunt were married. The two enjoyed a happy relationship. Eva joined Providence Baptist Church and was baptized. She loved to cook and she said that soul food and fried chicken were her specialties. She also got pleasure from sewing and shopping. Frequently, Eva joined her husband in attending Lott Carey Missionary Meetings, sailing on local boat cruises and attending various ushering events at other churches in the city.

Eva was a faithful participant in Providence worship services, and she was steadfast in her responsibilities. She was active in the Progressive Workers Club and in attending the Ladies Bible Study Class.

On March 21, 2026, Eva quietly entered Eternal Rest. She was preceded in death by her beloved parents Cleophas and Virginia Garrett, her husband Clarence C. Hunt, her daughter Vicky Garrett-Bey, her brother William, and her sisters Gwendolyn and Christina.

Eva leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted daughter, Annette King; grandchildren, Michael Harper, Yolanda McRoy, Larissa Allen, Ishmael Jones-Bey, Hakim Jones-Bey, and Jamila Jones-Bey; sisters, Alice Morris, and Patricia Moore; and a host of nieces, nephews, other grandchildren and great-grandchildren, all of whom will forever hold Eva in their hearts.

Eva's life was a testament of love, faith and resilience. She will be deeply missed, but her legacy will continue to live on through the lives she touched.
