“ I offer my sincere condolences to your family for your loss. The death of a loved one can be very devastating to the family, and I can certainly identify with your pain. My heart goes out to you, and I pray that you receive much comfort from Almighty God and from the scriptures which offer the wonderful hope of the ressurection. The bible promises that one day all thosse in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out, those who did good things to life everlasting." Jehovah didnt mean this grief and pain for his earthly children, and one day soon he will wipe away all tears.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end##

“ I send my deep sympathy to the family of Eva. Although it's been several months since she passed away, the pain associated with losing a loved one never goes away completely. They are always in our hearts and minds. I'ds like to share a word of comfort with you from the bible, which tells us of a wonderful future for people who love God, and strive to serve him faithfully. He promises that all sickness, pain, and sorrow will be erased from the earth, and there will be no more people dying. Rev 21,4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former tings have passed away. And the one seated on the thone says, Look! I am making all things new. Jehovah God loves life and he hates death. And he promises that one day all those sleeping in death will hear the voice of his son Jesus, and they will come out of those memorial tombs. May you be comforted by this wonderful hope, and may the memory of Eva stay alive in your hearts to help you to cope in the days ahead,##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
