

Eva Mae Sherman

March 11, 1924 - January 27, 2010

EVE MAE SHERMAN, the daughter of the late William Beckwith and Pearl Baker, the sister of the late Beatrice Pankey and Leroy Beckwith, was born on March 11, 1924 in Durham, North Carolina. God called her home on the evening of January 27, 2010 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in Durham, N.C. And was married to the late Leroy Sherman on March 20, 1953 In Durham, N.C. A PVT of the United States Army. She later planted her roots and began a new life in Baltimore, Md. Along with her two daughters. She was baptized at Mount Calvary Baptist Church in Mt. Wyman. She received a certificate in tailoring at Carver Vocational Technical High School. Eva Mae Sherman was a unique woman, full of knowledge, strength and put the "I" in independence. She would help anyone; you might have to hear a speech before she gave in, however she would help you. That was the method to her madness. She loved her casinos especially Atlantic City; she was "Lady Luck." She loved to read her newspapers so much that after she had read them she would pass them down for someone else to read them. Baseball was her greatest love; The Baltimore Orioles had an unconditional fan in her. She loved her garden, she could grow anything. She was a woman of many sayings that made a lot of sense, such as; You can do bad by yourself, you don't need no help, It is a poor rat that has only one hole to crawl in, Bo-weaver is always looking for a home and her favorite was "I pay the cost to be boss." She was the life of any party and once you met her, you could never forget her. These were all words of wisdom when you think about them. My grandmother was truly a unique woman, a force to be reckoned with. A woman of great strength, wisdom and independence up to very day she gave up her fight. She will truly, truly be missed but never ever forgotten. She was blessed with two daughters; Jeanette McFarlane and Johnnie Mae McLaughlin, who gave her ten grandchildren; Michele (the late Marcella and Lowell), Michael, Linda, Larry, Darryl, Clayton, Donnette and Myron who gave her twenty-four great-grandchildren who gave her twenty-four great-great-grandchildren. She had two sons-in-law, Martin and Lawrence; sister-in-law, Marion Beckwith; and some life-long faithful friends, Maggie-Mae, Ann and Mary. She also had a host of nieces, cousins and many more friends who loved her.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Eva Mae Sherman. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (Johns 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
