July 11, 1919 - September 9, 2002

Eva Mae Stokes, daughter of the late Julian and Rebecca Wells, was born on July 11, 1919 in Hertford County, North Carolina. She was called from labor to go home on September 9, 2002. At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior at Millneck Baptist Church in Hertford County, North Carolina. Eva was educated in the North Carolina Public School System. In 1942, she was united in holy matrimony to the late Grover Cleveland Stokes. In 1943, they relocated to Baltimore, Maryland and from this union one daughter Shirley was born. Eva enjoyed sewing and worked for many years as a seamstress until her health prevented her from working. Most of all, Eva loved the Lord. She loved attending church and throughout her lifetime served on various ministries, such as missionary usher board and motherboard. She attended church regularly until her illness prevented her from doing so. Eva leaves to cherish her memory; a loving daughter, Shirley Saunders; one son-in-law, George M. Saunders; three sisters, Percy Scott of Richmond, Virginia; Suetta Mangum of Franklin, Virginia and Dorothy Stokes of Zuni, Virginia; one brother-in-law, Andrew Stokes; one sister-in-law, Pauline Stokes; two grandsons, George A. and Andre Saunders; one granddaughter, Yvonne Saunders-Geter, her husband (William), five great-grandchildren Michael, Joshua, Alexis, Kendall and Collin; one nephew, eight nieces and a host of other relatives and friends.
