

Evangeline Kent

July 5, 1936 - April 29, 2020

EVANGELINE KENT, known by many as "Van", born July 5, 1936, to the late Bernard Hutcherson and Mamie Elizabeth Hutcherson in Mecklenburg County, Virginia and the youngest of 4 children. Evangeline had become ill and was cared for by her daughter, Joyce Chesley at home until she was taken to the hospital where she peacefully departed this life the morning of Wednesday, April 29, 2020, at St. Agnes Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Evangeline received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. Evangeline worked for Regal Laundry and SuperPride Market just to name a few. Evangeline enjoyed shopping, cooking, playing cards and bingo. She loved watching wrestling and taking trips to Atlantic City and spending time with her children, family and friends. Evangeline was married to the late James B. Kent, Jr. Evangeline leaves to cherish and honor her memory: her sister, Bernice Marshall from Keysville, Virginia; 2 brothers, who preceded her in death, James Richardson and Joe Hutcherson; four children, Robert, Joyce, James and Raymond whom also preceded her in death; 1 grandson, Troy Chesley; 1 great-grandson, Trayvon Chesley whom both preceded her in death; 2 children Van raised, Patricia and Sabrina; 1 nephew, James Hutcherson; 19 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren, 3 sisters-in-law, 3 brothers-in-law; companion of 35 years, Joshua Harrison; and a host of other relatives and friends. Van will forever be missed for her soft nature and loving heart.
