Evangeline Wilson was born on June 15, 1956 to the late Glasco and Elizabeth Brockington, She departed this life on Wednesday December 7, 2016.

“Boo” as she was affectionately known began her education in the Baltimore City Schools. Although she never received her high school diploma, she was determined that one day she would get her degree. It wasn't until she was seventy years old when she persevered and received her G.E.D. She was so proud of this accomplishment and her family was proud of her too.

Evangeline was a single mom raising her young son, Stanley Subsequently on December 31, 1955 she married Willie Lee Wilson, Sr. From that union she had six additional children; Vanessa Angelo, Jacqueline, Violette, Alvin and Willie Lee, Jr. As a mother she loved and cared for her children. She was determined to ensure that her children received only the best that she could provide.

Evangeline ran her own business for many years as an in-home daycare provider. She was one of the best in the city. She loved and cared for many children throughout the years as a dedicated daycare mother.

In her early years she attended the Rehoboth Church of God in Christ, Apostolic, where Bishop Randolph A. Carr was the Pastor. For many years including the time of her death, she was faithful member of the New Psalmist Baptist Church under the auspices of Bishop Walter Scott Thomas, Sr. She served as a choir member and in other capacities as well.

Evangeline was a remarkable mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, daughter, and friend. She loved the Lord and was continually growing in His presence. She will be greatly missed.

Her children Vanessa, Angelo and Violette, preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Stanley (Vonda), Jacqueline, Alvin (Winter) and Willie Lee, Jr. brother Glasco, Jr. (Juanita); sisters-in-law, Diana Badgett Ernestine Hairston and Corinth Matkins; two brothers-in-law, Leon (Dorothy) and Jonathan, Sr. (Catherine); a host and many other family members and friends.
