

Evelena T. Wright

August 5, 1943 - October 26, 2017

EVELENA T. WRIGHT, daughter of Willie and Josephine Wright was born August 5, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on October 26, 2017 after a lengthy illness.

Evelena accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age in life. She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. Afterwards she took an interest in sales and retail.

Evelena developed a wonderful relationship with Mr. Willie Joe Murphy. Out of this union was born a wonderful daughter, Natalie Murphy whom they loved dearly. While enjoying motherhood Evelena developed a Love for cooking, shopping, playing cards, and being the neighborhood window watcher. (If she saw something and it didn't happen the way she saw the situation, it didn't happen).

Evelena may have been the baby girl, but she wasn't ignored by siblings. Evelena had her opinions and had no problem expressing her feelings. Evelena had her siblings showed love for for one another through their support, kindness, prayer, and encouragement. She came from a family of servants and household of faith. Evelena's sisters, Catherine and Mae gave her their best care while she fought with illness, Richard always kept a watchful eye on his sisters. Evelena served in the Kingdom of God from her home. She provided love, meals, clothes, and a place to sleep more than fifty years from this home of faith. It didn't matter who you were and where you came from, if you got to 521 East 22nd Street you were in a safe haven. You could make it another day! Evelena was one of the greatest servants of God. After years of being a servant Evelena struggle with an untimely illness, yet she never gave up the fight to serve others with love, joy, and kindness.

Preceding n her demise are: parents, Josephine and Willie Wright; sister, Rosetta Wright; and two brothers, Leroy Wright and Edward Wright.

Evelena leaves to cherish her memory: her loving daughter, Natalie; devoted sisters, Catherine Suggs and Mae Wright; devoted brother, Richard Wright, (Wife) sister-in-law, Christine Suggs and Mae Wright; grandchildren, Mykia Carter and Ernest King; and a host of nieces, nephews and godsons.
