“ My family and I offer our deepest sympathy to Evelyn's family and friends. As you reflect on her life and draw comfort from your precious memories, remember the One who is the source of life has given us a source of comfort doing times like these. The hope of the resurrection mentioned at Acts 24:15. We can find comfort in this hope because Hebrews 6:18 tells us it is impossible for God to lie. Let him be your source of comfort.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family of Evelyn, I offer my sincere sympathy. The death of a loved one is truly the hardest thing families have to endure, and we all long for an end to sickness and death. Will we ever see that? The bible says we will. At Isaiah 33:24 it says that the day is coming when no resident will say, "I am sick." Also, 1st Cor 15:26 lets us know that the last enemy death, will be brought to nothing." Jehovah and his Son Jesus hate death, and that is why Jehovah promises at Rev 21,4 that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "These former things will have passed away. As for the dead, they will one day hear the voice of Jesus calling them out from the memorial tombs, and they will come back to life again. May these wonderful scriptural promises from Jehovah God bring comfort to your family, as they have comforted my family at such times, and may his love help you to cope.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ May I send condolences to all. Knowing that others care can help to heal in time. We all have lost some one in death and knows the feeling .Living for 61 years is wonderfull in these last days. Imagine the happiness to be our when the dead are raised to life as John 11:22-44 help us to understand the resurrection hope for mankind. No more tears of saddness and pain and no more dying ever again. I am looking forward to that happening in the near future. May all the many cherished times with Ms. Evelyn help to sutain and support you all in life journey ahead.###imported-begin###I.C.###imported-end###
