

Evelyn C. Clash

April 2, 1910 - November 29, 2001

Evelyn Cecelia Clash was born to Clarence and Alleyne Davis on April 2, 1910 in Baltimore, Maryland. She quietly departed this life on Thursday, November 29, 2001. Evelyn received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She was employed as an elementary school cafeteria aide. She was united in marriage with Arthur "Duck" Clash in 1926. From this union were born three children, Bernard Archibald, John Sterling and Audrey. Bernard and Audrey predeceased her. Evelyn and "Duck" loved to entertain and to be entertained by friends and family. His sudden passing in 1980 ended their long and happy union. Blessed with an inner as well as outer beauty, Evelyn radiated joy and happiness wherever she went. She loved to perform poetry readings and was often asked to do so. She was devout member of St. Martin's Catholic Church where she became a choir member and participated in other areas. Her faithbased life was evident, revealed in her constant professing of the awareness of God in her life. A charter member of the "Buddies," a social club formed in the 1930's, Evelyn enjoyed traveling, card playing and socializing with "the girls." A loving spirit, she will be sorely missed. Evelyn leaves to cherish their memories: a devoted son, John Sterling; a grandson, Victor Clash; a granddaughter, Marjorie Ellen Lucas; three daughters-in-law, Helen, Alice and Helen Hitchens; three great grandson, a devoted nephew, nephew, Thomas "Sonny" Patterson: and many other relatives and very dear friends.

“ Thank you for being one of the first people to trust my driving, I have so many fond memories of picking up you and my Gandmother. The two of you were always so happy about being out with " The Ladies" playing cards and eating each other gourmet delights and confections, I even remember the tightly folded"IceCream Money " you all would share with me, I use to laugh because it was always more than enough for a cone , but a half gallon. Thank you for being you, Peace and love always,Clyde, Liz's Grandson.##imported-begin##Clyde W. Smith##imported-end##
