

Evelyn Curbean

November 30, 1940 - September 23, 2010

Today we assemble to acknowledge and celebrate the life of our beloved EVELYN CURBEAN. "Ebby-Webby," as she was know throughout the family, was born December 30, 1940 to the late James Ray and Martha Brown Curbean.

Evelyn grew up in the East Baltimore Community. She was a product of the Baltimore City Public School System. She was a beautician and used her craft to meet many new people. She loved to sing, dance, cook, and most of all tell jokes. She was a devoted sister, mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend..

Evelyn peacefully slipped away on September 23, 2010 at Gilchrist Hospice Care. Her loving memory will be cherished by: her daughter, Yolanda (Her son-in-law preceded her in death); grandson, John; and granddaughter, Andrea. She was loved and adored by her six siblings. Three brothers, James Jr., Edward and Ronnie and two sisters, Anna Mae and Marion, all preceded her in death. She also leaves to mourn: one surviving sister, Sallie Belle; two great-grandchildren, Ja'quan and Ryan; grandson-in-law Rodney; granddaughter-in-law, Lisa; uncle, Richard (Buddy) Curbean; aunts, Lucy Curbean; two sisters-in-law, Angela and Andrea Curbean; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Cemetery Details

King Memorial Park Cemetery - Grand Heritage Chapel & Mausoleum

8710 Dogwood Rd.
Baltimore, MD 21244
(410) 944-8300
info@kingmemorialpark.com
<https://www.KingMemorialPark.com>

Previous Events

Visitation

SEP 28. 8:30 AM - 8:00 PM (ET)

March Funeral Homes - East Baltimore
1101 East North Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21202
(410) 727-3300
info@marchfh.com

Wake

SEP 29. 9:00 AM - 9:30 AM (ET)

March Funeral Homes - East Baltimore
1101 East North Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21202
(410) 727-3300
info@marchfh.com

Service

SEP 29. 9:30 AM (ET)

March Funeral Homes - East Baltimore
1101 East North Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21202
(410) 727-3300
info@marchfh.com

Tribute Wall

“ Evelyn Curbean

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

JE

I met Evelyn at Dunbar High. She dated a guy named Gerard. My name is Julia

Julia Engram - June 19, 2024 at 12:33 AM

GW

“ Gwendolyn Williams lit a candle in memory of Evelyn Curbean

Gwendolyn Williams - October 05, 2010 at 09:53 AM

“ I wasn't able to meet Evelyn but its always sad to experience the loss of a loved one, but if I could draw your attention to the Bible and its promise, it assures us hat we will be given a grand opportunity to see loved ones again, John 5:28, 29, which states: " The hour is coming fourth in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out, so you will be able to see her again, and what makes that promise even more refreshing is whats said later at Revelation 21: which says, " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will there be mourning nor outcry nor pain anymore. The former things have passed away," so everlasting life is promised, so even after the resurrection you'll never have to feel such pain again.

Tevin Delly - September 30, 2010 at 07:35 PM

LC

“ Growing up it was always a pleasure when Evelyn came to visit, my mother and her would laugh and talk all day, it was turlly the best of times... i will always remember the little things in life that meant so much to both of them, now they can continue the laugh.... Evelyn has completed her race no more pain or sorrow, the victory has been won. To my family keep you head high... it may seem cloudy today but turlly the sun will shine tomorrow, GOD bless you and may heaven smile upon you.

LaVerne Curbeam-Tilghman - September 27, 2010 at 09:49 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

March Funeral Homes - September 24, 2010 at 04:50 PM