“ I am so very sorry for your deep loss, and you have my sincere condolences. Remember this whenever you are feeling sad, that God offers us the hope of the resurrection. When on earth his son, Christ Jesus, resurrected many people back to life; including his good friend Lazarus and a little 12-year old girl. Mark 5:38-43. He showed on a small scale what he will do in the near future as a powerful king; in resurrecting billions back from the dead. What a glorious day of joy that will be when we are reunited with our loved ones who have died. Truly as Daniel 12:2 says: "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." May you find much comfort and joy in these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. I am sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon, "He will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
