

Evelyn Davis Hopkins

May 30, 1917 - September 5, 2008

EVELYN DAVIS HOPKINS was born May 30, 1917. She was the third child born to Elinor and Gary Davis. Her siblings Esther, Elaine and Howard passed on many years ago. Evelyn was educated in the Baltimore public schools. Aunt Evelyn had a love of collecting antiques and dreamed of owning her own little shop one day. That was a dream deferred. In young womanhood she met, courted then married Norman Taylor Hopkins, a tall, handsome Pennsylvanian. From this loving and beautiful union an only child, a son, William Edward Hopkins was born. Sadly, their son passed away suddenly at a very young age. I believe on the morning of September 5, 2008, my aunt, who had been sightless for years, opened her eyes and became sighted and her new eyes pierced through that concrete ceiling at Genesis and saw a host of cherubim and seraphim who said, "Come, Come." I believe at that moment she surrendered her earthly body so shackled with pain, and all around her the putrid smell of illness was present. She gently lifted her eyes toward zephyr carried her to the portal of heaven...and I know she saw the face of God. She is survived by: grand and great-grand nephews and nieces, Carolyn Monroe, Richard Segree, George H. Annis Jr. III, Darius Annis, Tiffiney and Brandi Monroe, Jason Fink and Leah Payton.

“ May I send fellow feeling in your recent loss of Ms. Evelyn after 91 years. Living for that length of years is indeed wonderful as the bible say at Ps.90:10" Some persons will live for 70 years and others 80 years because of speical mightiness". We long for better times and our hevenley father will be right on time in the near future as Rev.21:3-5 say, WHY?, because he is making all things . NEw".May all the many many cherish and happy times spent with Ms. Eve keep supporting you all in the days, months, years to come.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family at this difficult time. Know that the God of all comfort is with you. When we hurt his heart hurts too, because he didnt desire this sorrow and pain for us. One day all sorrow will be gone and death will be no more. God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and all pain from our hearts. Rev 21:3-5. One day he will restore life back to our loved ones, and they will never have to die again. May you find joy in the hope of the ressurection. Acts 24:15, John 5:28,29##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
