

Evelyn E. Jordan

June 10, 1950 - January 16, 2002

Evelyn E. Jordan, better known as Sis, daughter of the late Alonzo W. and Estelle Smith Ray, was born on June 10, 1950, in Washington, DC. She departed this life on January 16, 2002. She received her education at Carver Vocational-Technical High School. From there she became employed full-time at Johns Hopkins Hospital for several years as a Nursing Assistant. In her youth she was baptized at New Pilgrim Baptist Church. While at New Pilgrim, she was a faithful member of the Jr. Usher Board as well as the Jr. Choir. All who did have the pleasure of knowing Evelyn, knew her as Sis. Sis was a very talented woman who loved to sing, dance, and have a good time. Sis was also a true friend and a woman who was truly devoted to her family. Sis made numerous friends wherever she went and will deeply missed. She leaves to mourn: two sons, Kenneth L. Ray and Michael Jordan, Jr., of Baltimore; four sisters, Helen Thomas, of Portsmouth, Va., Karen Y. Williams, Patricia R. Ray, and Sheila L. Ray, Baltimore; two brothers, Jesse E. Ray and Gary D. Ray, of Baltimore; one brother-in-law, Moses H. Ross, of Baltimore; nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends, including her caregiver, Mary Marine. Three brothers, Lonnie W. Ray, Phillip C. Ray, and Eugene Ray preceded her in death. FAREWELL TO MY DEAR SISTER AND FRIEND Farewell, dear Sister, you slept peacefully away, I understand you could not stay, You left much love, for that was your way. Your lasting memories will I always hold Until my life, will unfold; Farewell, farewell, my Sister dear, In my heart I will keep you near, Rest now, Sister, rest In the bosom of the best.
