

Evelyn E. Quickley (Savoy)

March 21, 1933 - July 25, 2004

Evelyn Earnestine Quickley, lovingly known as “Ditta,” eldest daughter of John and Evelyn Quickley, was born on March 21, 1933 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Sunday, July 25, 2004, after a short-term illness, she entered into eternal life. Evelyn received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She started working at a very young age. Evelyn worked various jobs. She worked as teacher at Johnston Square Elementary School. For several years, she was a Day Care Provider helping to shape and mold the lives of many young children. She eventually came to work for the City of Baltimore for 18 years until she retired in 1996, after the passing of her mother. Evelyn loved to shop and dress. She especially loved large earrings, big hats and expensive perfumes. She loved listening to gospel music, cooking, and passing on family traditions. She really enjoyed the holidays and decorating her home with her grandson. Evelyn married the one love of her life, Leon Savoy. From this union three children were conceived: their oldest daughter, Tracy; one son, Darrell; and a younger daughter, Maria who preceded her to eternal life. Evelyn accepted God into her life at an early age. She was a very prayerful woman. Evelyn will always be remembered as a class act. Evelyn leaves to mourn: her one love, her husband, Leon; her children, her one and only daughter, Tracy, and her baby boy, Darrell; (she had two children to pass on to Glory before her, Reginald and Maria). Evelyn also leaves to mourn three grandsons, Darrell, Darian and Darius; son-in-law, Duwayne Parker; daughter-in-law, Adriane Dillard. She also leaves to mourn: two brothers, Walter Quickley and Maurice Proctor (two brothers preceded Evelyn to Glory, John Jr. and Donald Quickley); three sisters, Regina Randall, Florence Bellamy and Remona Giles (one sister to pass on to Glory, Audrey Ragland); three sisters-in-law, Alma Quickley, Esther Quickley and Linda Proctor; three brothers-in-law, William Randall, Avon Bellamy and Darryl Giles; as well as a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews and other relatives and fond friends too numerous to mention but not to be forgotten.

“ Dear family and friends of Evelyn. I am very sorry to hear about the lost of your loved one. Death is such a hard thing to go through. This is because Jehovah God did not want humans to die, he wanted them to live on a paradise earth. The bible gives comforting words at John 5:28,29 when it talks about a time when we will see our dead loved ones again.##imported-begin##A. Jones##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Evelyn E.Quickley, my deepest condolences to the family. The bible is full of words of comfort. At Revelation 21:3-4, it tells us that in the near future God will bring to an end sickness and death. Also at Isaiah 25:8, there we are comforted by the fact that God will bring a permanent end to death. May these scriptures comfort you and your family in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Albert Washington##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. I would like to share one of the many loving promises from the Bible with you. That promise is found at Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." May these words bring you much comfort and strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Leon and Family, At this difficult time so many people care deeply about what you're going through, though no one can truly understand all that you feel...But please remember how much we care, and know you're surrounded by warm, supportive thoughts and wishes for strength and peace today, and in all the days to come. “ Uncle Leon, Sorry to hear about Aunt Evelyn, I just found out today about the death of your wife. I would have been there had I known, it would have given me a chance to finally meet some of my relatives. Although it's hard to understand just why these things must be, still may you find some comfort in these words of sympathy. And in the thought and memories of the things she did and said, will keep your love one close to you through all the days ahead.##imported-begin##Kareem Proctor (Maurice Son)(St. Ann's)##imported-end##
