

Evelyn Feaster

December 18, 1922 - December 26, 2005

EVELYN FEASTER, daughter of the late James and Laura Williams, was born on December 18, 1922 in Littleton, North Carolina. She departed this life after a short illness. Evelyn was raised in Baltimore where she attended school and was in the graduating class of Dunbar Senior High School in 1942. She began working at Johns Hopkins Hospital where she met and married the late Thomas Feaster. Out of this union two children were born, Thomas Jr. and Lucretia (Chris). Evelyn had many jobs, but the three she enjoyed most were cashier at the movies, teller at the bank and working with people at the Waxter Center. She made friends, life-long and casual, everywhere she went and was loved by many. If she had it, whatever it was, and you wanted it, it was "yours." She'd give you her heart. She was a good friend and a devoted mother. She leaves to mourn: her children, Tommy and Chris Feaster; nieces, Delores Artis and Robinette Dawson; nephews, Larry Robinson and James Byrd; cousin, Bernice; cousins, Cynthia and Buddy Joe; granddaughter, Gwen; and a host of other relatives and friends. Evelyn was the last of her immediate family. Her five brothers and sisters, Buddy, Betty Ruth, Louise, Charles and Willie Mae preceded her in death. Evelyn will truly be missed by all who knew her.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in Ps. 34:18, John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4. God promises to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ To the family of Evelyn Feaster. This was a great lost to family and friends,May you get some relief from the words of Job 14:14-15 "I shall wait (in the grave) until my relief comes (GOD) will call, and I myself answer. What a joy it will be when that time arrives and the dead reunited with their loved ones!##imported-begin##Adams##imported-end##
