

Evelyn Delores Gaymon

May 25, 1952 - July 13, 2010

Evelyn Delores Gaymon, Lois as everyone would affectionately call her, was born to her devoted mother Jessie Mae Artis and the Late Robert Luke Artis, in Four Oak, North Carolina, on May 25, 1952.

On Tuesday July 13, 2010, God in his Divine Wisdom and understanding came to claim the life of our beloved Evelyn Delores Gaymon after a brief illness.

She received her education at Southern High School and then furthered her education at Coppin State College, where she received a degree in Education. Delores worked for the Baltimore City Public School System for over 26 years. She was dedicated and devoted to her job where she enjoyed educating and helping children with special needs. Her loving and caring presence was felt wherever she went. Lois will be truly missed by her family and true friends. Her legacy will go on through each person that she has touched in a special way.

She had two brothers precede her in death, Edward Mack Linwood Artis and Cornell Turner.

She leaves to mourn: A very special and devoted friend David Straw, who hung in there through thick and thin, son Antione Darnell Artis, daughter La'Shaun Venable (James), brother Roland Artis, sister Pamela Lavern Artis, two grandsons Darnell Antione Artis, Jazz Venable, two granddaughters Alexis Venable, AAliyah La'Shaun Artis, a niece and nephew that were like children Anthony Edward Hicks (Spanky) and Shawnita Delores Artis. Three Special childhood friends Sandra Johnson, Nathan Ellis, and Jackie Wilkens (Cousin).

A host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.
