

Evelyn Hill Banks

February 1, 1912 - September 28, 2002

On Saturday, September 28, 2002 an Angel removed another link from the chain of the late Irene and Noah S. Hill to share the beauty of their marvelous home in Heaven. Evelyn (Hill) Banks was born on February 1, 1912. Evelyn was the fourth of nine children; six preceded her in death. Evelyn made her commitment to Christ as a young girl and was baptized at St. Mary the Virgin Church in Baltimore. In 1940, she was confirmed at St. Matthews Lutheran Church where she was a member for over forty years. She then joined Gillis Memorial Christian Community Church where she was a faithful member for over thirty years. During her many years at Gillis, she sustained many long and loving friendships with a host of kind, devoted and talented people. She was educated in the Baltimore Public Schools. After holding various jobs, she retired in 1976 after twenty years as a Psychiatric Foreman for Spring Grove State Hospital. Evelyn loved to give and receive cards and flowers. She always said to "Give me my flowers while I can still smell them." She loved to cook and entertain her family. For many years, she especially enjoyed preparing large holiday dinners. Her children and friends always knew they were welcome to a meal, free advice and counsel. Evelyn's gracious hospitality, love of good food, especially steak fish, was equal only to her good humor and her love of dancing. She taught her daughters to jitterbug. She leaves behind a legacy that will never be forgotten. Evelyn was a devoted mother, caring grandmother and patient great-grandmother. She leaves to cherish her memory: five daughters, Vera Garner, Irene Forbes, Lorraine

Bedford, Brenda Bailey and Jacqueline McCloud; one brother, Rev. James Hill; one sister, Beverly Wall; seventeen grandchildren, twenty-six great-grandchildren, six great-great-grandchildren, two sons-in-law, three sisters-in-law, several nieces, nephews and cousins, a host of other relatives, friends, co-workers and a life-long devoted friend, Emily Barnes. She has an adopted daughter, Edna Taylor.
