

Evelyn McGill

November 3, 1923 - March 17, 2012

Sunrise in the life of EVELYN SINGLETON McGill began on November 2, 1923 and her sunset came on March 17, 2012. Evelyn, the daughter of the late John and Georgiana Singleton, was born in Winnsboro, South Carolina where she attended “the little house on the hill school”, Pine Grove School.

Evelyn lived in Winnsboro until the age of 14 when she journeyed to Baltimore to live with friends. While in Baltimore, Evelyn met and married her husband, the late Woodroe McGill. They had one son, Curtis, whom she adored.

She was employed for many years in the security field on various ships that were docked in the Port of Baltimore.

One memory that will always come to mind when family members think of Evelyn was her “fingerlicking” good southern cooking.

During Evelyn’s lengthy illness, she bonded with her late niece, Beverly Singleton and niece Brenda Perkins who became her caregivers. Though, she later became confined to the Future Care Nursing Home on Gilmore Street, she was able to fellowship with New Psalmist Baptist Church due to the kindness of church member, Sandra Baptist.

In addition to her son Curtis, Evelyn leaves to mourn her granddaughter, Imari; one brother, Rev. George R. Singleton; one sister Pauline Going; two sisters-in-law Blanche Singleton and Carolyn Singleton; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
