

Evelyn L. Nicholson

February 7, 1958 - August 6, 2023

Evelyn Lithanna Nicholson was born February 7, 1958, in Baltimore, Maryland to the late George Nicholson and Terry Theresa Smith. She was educated in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania public school system, and graduated from William Penn High School in June 1976.

Evelyn was so multi-talented that she maintained employment in many segments of the job market. They included catering and construction. Upon her death, she was fully employed by the University of Maryland School of Medicine /IHV Clinic. Also, she was active on the Board of Single Father's Inc, as well as other community organizations.

Her deepest passions were two-fold. She loved to help her clients, and she went to extremes to encourage and support them. If it meant catching an Uber or a bus, Evelyn showed up with her voice and resources to help those diagnosed with HIV/AIDS.

As a matter of fact, she was "Mom" to so many people. She opened her doors to all who needed help, such as a place to stay or providing an excellent meal to eat. Her supervisor often warned her to "not answer the phone" because she knew Evelyn would try to help those in need at her expense.

Her first love was her love for her family, especially her grandchildren. Often, she took them to the movies, bowling, and other local community events. Consequently, "Litha", as she was affectionately called was loved and adored by many.

After a brief illness, Evelyn passed from labor to reward on August 6, 2023. She was preceded in death by her husband, James Leroy Smith; son, Lorado Williams, Jr.; mother, Terry Dawkins; father, George Nicholson; stepfather, Lindsay Dawkins; aunts, Nell Smith, Maria Moore, and Mary Wellington-Sellars; uncles, John McDaniels, James Mays, and Douglass Moore.

She leaves to cherish her life, 1 daughter, Darein La'Tres Williams; 2 sons Lavar and Lamar Williams; 6 grandchildren, Kyshira, Katelyn, Ethan Tripline; LaVar Jr., Labar, Lamar Jr., Williams; her "Dad," Raymond Savage, Jr.; 3 sisters, Valarie Pugh (Cato), Kim Harrison, Kenya Savage; 5 brothers, Clarence Young, Raymond Savage III, Keith Savage, Oscar Savage, Stephen Savage, Russell and Kenny Dawkins, a host of nieces nephews, cousins, unofficial adopted children, grandchildren and friends.

“ To the Family... Our hearts goes out to you all and you all have our condolences and prayers that you all will get through this as well and we know that everyone of you are suffering the loss of your mother, grandmother, aunt, niece, sister, friend or whatever she was too all of you. Just know that she's with you all in your hearts. Evelyn Nicholson was a great friend, I cherished her friendship so much, we went on retreats together a few times but she's the type of friend that you can't forget about. Evelyn is truly going to be missed and she's so well loved by all who she comes across. I moved from Baltimore 7 years ago, and we stayed in touch for a minute but then things happened, she would let me know who died that I knew that we both knew, but when I found out that she had died but heart was torn because Evelyn was getting around better than me and I said what in the world could have happen to her, because it surely didn't seem like nothing was wrong at all with Evelyn, but that's life. I'm going to truly miss Evelyn and I truly loved her because she was a true friend that you can say is a friend. Evelyn you're truly missed but I definitely know that God's got you and now no more suffering. I love you Evelyn Nicholson. My heart is broken right now because now we have lost another great person in our lives. But to leave a great message about Evelyn is to say that A JOB WELL DONE AND SHE DONE IT WELL !!!
