

Evelyn M. Peters

January 22, 1923 - September 17, 2018

Evelyn M. Peters was the only child born to the late Vinton and Florence Powell on January 22, 1923 in Westminster, Maryland. Early Monday Morning, September 17, 2018, God called His sweet loving daughter home.

Evelyn graduated from Robert Morten High School in Westminster, Maryland. Early in her life, Evelyn met the Lord and joined Union Memorial Baptist Church in Westminster, Maryland.

As a young woman she worked at McDonough School, where she met and married her late husband and love of her life, Herbert Peters. They were married for 35 years and lived in Baltimore, Maryland. That union was blessed with a daughter, Darlene Peters. Although Evelyn and Herbert only had one child, Evelyn served as a neighborhood mom to many. They joined and were faithful members of Berean Baptist Church, both serving as a deacon and deaconess respectively.

Evelyn also worked for and retired from Baltimore City Public School System. Evelyn and Herbert were also caterers for over 30 years.

Evelyn Peters was preceded in death by her son, Robert (Buck) Powell. She leaves to mourn and be missed by her devoted daughter Darlene Peters; granddaughter, Marcia Dorsey (Kenneth); great grandson, Kenneth (Lee) Dorsey, Jr.; great-great granddaughter, Iyis Dorsey; and a host of relatives, friends and care givers.

Forever, Evelyn will be remembered for her big smile and sweet ways. Her voice will always resonate as she loved to sing. "Precious Lord" at Sunday Services and Prayer Services at Manor care.
