

Evelyn G. Richardson

September 12, 1921 - November 12, 2014

On November 12, 2014, EVELYN GLADYS BAYLOR RICHARDSON transitioned from this life after a lengthy illness. Evelyn was born September 12, 1921 to the late Thomas and Nannie Baylor in Mica, VA. After the death of her mother, Evelyn relocated to Washington, DC, then to Baltimore, MD where she was reared by her aunt and uncle, Edward and Ethel Shell. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools and attended Morgan State College. Evelyn was baptized at an early age at the Ebenezer Baptist Church; she was employed by Baltimore City Public Schools for thirty-five years, retiring as a Food Service Regional Manager.

Evelyn was a very quiet woman, always showing a genuine smile, moreover she loved musical shows and was always humming a lovely tune. Evelyn's family meant the world to her. She enjoyed cooking for them, preparing for the next event or visit. In addition, Evelyn was a very active member of her Food Service Group, Chapter 13 and Evelyn enjoyed traveling with them to conventions and special events. She enjoyed vacationing and traveling with her family as well.

In July of 1939, Evelyn married Purnell Robert Richardson. To this union, two children were born. After 59 years of blissful marriage, her husband preceded her in death. A year later Evelyn relocated to South Carolina to live with her son Purnell and his wife Mary.

North Augusta, SC and Roland (Marsha) Richardson, Randallstown, MD; seven grandchildren, Valerie (James) Conley, Pasadena, MD, Stephanie (Carl) Vaughn, Randallstown, MD, Kim Richardson, Ann Arundel County, MD, Purnell Roland Richardson, Owings Mills, MD, Terri Johnson, Sumter, SC, Michael (Merci) Richardson, Richmond, CA, Keia Richardson, Owings Mills, MD, three step-grandchildren, Reginald (BJ) Watson, Baltimore, MD; Rodney (Melissa) Rodgers, Atlanta, GA; Ronda Winns, Evans, GA; a host of great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren; a special long time friend, Mrs. Geraldine White of Baltimore, MD; a host of nieces, nephews, family members and friends.
