

Evelyn E. Smith

March 27, 1924 - September 22, 2013

EVELYN ELIZABETH SMITH, was born in Pineville, South Carolina on March 27, 1924. as a young women, she followed her oldest sister Alberta to Baltimore where she has lived all her life. Always the loving and protective mother, she showed that love by exemplifying before her children and grandchildren faithfulness: showing up for all their recitals, plays, and life milestones. She modeled sacrifice: doing without so that they could always do more and better than she had. Most of all, she exuded love: her unconditional love gave meaning to the poet's words that: "Mother is the first name for God on the lips and hearts of all children."

She leaves to mourn her death and to celebrate her life two sons: Neddie J. and Teddy M. Smith; a daughter: Eleanor (Sadiqa) Francis; five granddaughters: Sheronda, Keysah, Yvonne, Lfe, and Nandi; two grandsons: Neddie (Clyde) and Yamo; three great-grandsons: Jahim, Louis, and Lawrence; daughter-in-law Clementine; son-in-law Roland; granddaughter-in-law Patricia; and many nieces and nephews. She will always be greatly missed by special friends and extended family members Marsha Glenn and Willie Huston. The many present today also love her and will miss her presence.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ To Sadeqa and family, I am truly saddened about the loss of your mother and/or grand-mother. It is so ironic that Mrs. Barnes, my mother and your mother all passed so close to one another. Wow, who would have thought this would have happened this way. Us all being neighbors it makes it feel like we just lost another family member. I guess in a way we are really family. Man... I can say that I do know first hand what you are going through right now after just burying my mother on the 24th. At least Momma has been reunited with my father again over at Garrison Forest Cemetery. So I guess that's a good thing but I don't know... You feel so conflicted because on one hand you know she suffered so you're glad that she's no longer suffering or in pain but on the other hand its your mother, and its a hard thing to lose Momma. I'm sure you miss her so, but be assured that God knew best and He decided to grant her rest. And always remember that earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal!

Be Blessed from Wendy and the Brooks Family
