

Evelyn Thomas

July 14, 1920 - September 16, 2012

EVELYN THERESA BENNETT THOMAS, daughter of the late Daniel and Ida Marshall Bennett, was born on July 14, 1920 in Woodstock, Maryland. She was affectionately called “Brown Sugar” by her family and friends.

Brown Sugar was the eighth born of her parent’s ten children. Born into the Catholic faith, she accepted Jesus Christ at an early age.

She received an early education in her local hometown school and later attended Randallstown High in Baltimore County. She was perceptive and quick-witted.

Brown Sugar married the late George William Thomas. She was the mother of six children. Her three sons: Daniel, Robert and Jerome; as well as one son-in-law, George Turner preceded her in death.

As a young adult, Brown Sugar worked at Henryton State Hospital, and performed various duties while working there. Later in her working tenure, she also did catering and was a waitress.

Brown Sugar was a friendly and fun-loving person. Her outgoing personality was revealed by her warm smile and infectious laughter. She had the gift of making others feel better through her sense of humor and wisdom. She enjoyed: reading, keeping up with past and current events, was family oriented and very meticulous. One of her many characteristics was having the gift of gab and being the life of the party. She constantly imparted wisdom on her grandchildren. One of her many sayings were: "Be true to your teeth or they will be false to you."

She leaves to cherish her memory: three loving daughters, Victoria Newmuis, Maxine Turner and Patricia Williams; two sons-in-law, Blakely Newmuis and Arthur Williams; one sibling, Bernice Porter; four devoted family members, Larry, his wife, Blanch, Charles Bennett and Margaret Hawkins; a host of grand and great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews; and other relatives and friends.

“ Thought of Auntie today. Remembering her at our house having family fun. She was laughing and dancing. My dad (Martin Bennett) was egging her on. Those were good old days. Missing them both and others. Hugs to cousins I no longer know. God bless her daughters.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”
