

Evelyn U. Grissett

January 11, 1947 - May 22, 2008

Evelyn Urquhart Grissett, Also know as “Evvie,” was born in Baltimore, Maryland on January 11, 1947 to the late Elizabeth Urquhart and the late Milton Myers, Jr. God’s angels suddenly escorted Evelyn to her eternal rest on May 22, 2008.

She was the eldest of four children; Juanita, Elaine, and Clifton Urquhart. Evelyn received her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. On June 17, 1967, Evelyn married the love of her life, Raymond Grissett and of this union two children were born, Raymond Kirk Grissett, Jr. and Rodney Keith Grissett.

Evelyn began her employment history with Center Stage before joining the Baltimore City Health Department as a secretary. Most of her career was dedicated to the Baltimore City Public School System beginning at Booker T. Washington Junior High School. Later, Evelyn was promoted and relocated to Baltimore City Public School System headquarters building. Evelyn’s career with Baltimore City Public School System spanned 37 years, and she retired in December 2007 as an Administrative Secretary.

Evelyn received Christ as her personal Savior and she became a member of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church. She loved her family very much.

Evelyn enjoyed cooking for her family and friends. People were easily drawn to her sweet personality and her beautiful smile: Evelyn enjoyed reading the Bible and she enjoyed listening to a variety of music, regularly traveling to Atlantic City, and socializing with family and friends.

Evelyn leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted husband, Raymond; two sons, Raymond Kirk and Rodney Keith; father-in-law and stepmother-in-law, Henry F. and Beatrice Grissett; two grandsons, Renard Kenneth Conaway Grissett and Jordan Darnell Grissett; two sisters, Juanita Urquhart Johnson and Elaine Urquhart Douglass; one brother, Clifton Urquhart, Sr.; one daughter-in-law, Cynthia Grissett; five sisters-in-law, Denise Miller, Deborah Richardson, Barbara Adams, Robin Robinson, and Paula Urquhart; three brothers-in-law, George Douglass, Ralph Cummings, Sr. and Arthur Johnson; Numerous nieces and nephews and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May these provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To The Family: If the Lord can send down the rain from heaven to water the flowers, how much more will God take care of you. If He clothes the lillies of the field with righteousness, how much more will God take care of you. If the Lord can provide food for the birds of the air; how much more will God take care of you. Yes God will take care of you, if you will only believe and trust Him to see you through. No matter what may come your way, please don't be dismayed, for God will take care of you. God Bless###imported-begin##Gwendolyn Starks###imported-end##

“ To the Family, Just months ago I was planning the retirement luncheon for my dear co-worker and friend and enjoyed every moment. The smile, scream and joy that it brought me when you walked in the room will last a life time. I had to be creative so I had my mom make the pocketbook because the surprise luncheon was no longer a surprise but the gift and friends would be. I thank God that our paths crossed and you will truly be missed. Marcia Simpson BCPSS###imported-begin##Marcia Simpson###imported-end##

“ To The Grissett Family: May the peace of the Lord, His gracious mercies be with you all at this time of bereavement until you meet with her again. My co-worker "Evvie" was the best person to encounter when I came to BCPSS 2 yrs. ago, her pleasant smile, willingness to assist me and her calming spirit made an unbearable workday seem worth it all. I thank God for sending such a special person to my life.##imported-begin##Helen Wilder##imported-end##

“ Evelyn will surely be missed. God sent us a blessing and allowed us the fortune of experiencing her professionally and personally. To know Evelyn was truly a gift. She respected people and asked for only a touch of kindness in return. As a result of having a police employment background, we often talked of how she should treat her husband. Without a doubt I could tell she was truly in love with the LT. I offer prayers and condolences to her husband and sons. May God Bless the family.###imported-begin##Robert (Bob) Hayes###imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. The death of a loved one is so hard to come to terms with. We miss them so much, and long for just one more day. Please find comfort in the scriptures, which hold all the answers to life"s perplexing questions. It also tells us how we can be reunited with our loved ones again. John 5:28,29 makes this wonderful promise. It says: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life. One day through our obedience and faith, and through his mercy, we will see our loved ones again.###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##
