

Evelyn Washington

July 22, 1923 - February 7, 2002

Evelyn Washington, daughter of the late Mary Jane Small Middleton and Jessie Waiter Middleton was born July 22, 1923 in St. Stephens, South Carolina. She departed this life on Thursday, February 7, 2002 at Bayview Medical Center. She received her education in the St. Stephens Public Schools. As a young woman she joined St. Stephens Baptist Church, faithfully attended Sunday School and was baptized by the late Reverend Henry Haskell. After moving to Baltimore, she became a long-time member of New Pentecostal Baptist Church where she was one of the “Mothers” of the church. She was also a member of Faith Baptist and attended Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church. During her illness she was unable to attend church but never let go of her belief that God was her personal Savior. She was married to the late Namon Washington. The Lord blessed them with nine children, two of whom preceded her in death. She was devoted mother who raised seven children. She leaves to cherish her memories: four sons, Wesley and Edward of South Carolina, Franklin and Alfonso of Baltimore; three daughters, Barbara Washington, Diane Hazelton and Sharon Bond of Baltimore; three daughters-in-law, Rose, Katrina and Patricia; two sons –in-law, Jackie and Floyd; seven grandchildren; five great grandchildren; two sisters, Mary Vice of South Carolina and Josephine Middleton of Baltimore; one aunt, Rebecca Middleton; two sisters-in-law, Rebecca Williams and Eloise Middleton; two brothers-in-law, Walter Williams and Arthur Washington; special family friends, Denise Ward and Yaqub Matin and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
