

Everett Alexander Nash

July 1, 1942 - June 3, 2010

My life has been full, I have savored much-good family, good friends, good times, and a loved one's touch. Lift up your hearts and share with me for God wants me with him. He has set me free.

Everett Alexander Nash (Billy), the youngest son of the late Edward and Edna Nash was born July 1, 1941. Circumstances allowed him to receive only a small portion of his formal education in the Richmond Public School System. He served as a "handyman", shoveling snow, cutting grass and helping people clean their surroundings. Billy was a very loving, honest and matter of fact person. He accepted Christ and was baptized at Rising Mount Zion Baptist Church in Fulton. He knew that the Lord was his shepherd.

He leaves to miss him greatly two sister, Carolyn Nash Fuller and Patricia Nash; two brothers, Dr. Edward B. Nash and Donald Nash, Sr. (Joyce); a special nephew, Rodney R. Roane; his partner and caregiver, Marvin A. Banks; a host of other relatives and friends.
