

Everett C. White

March 1, 1956 - December 9, 2014

EVERETT CHARLES WHITE (SONNY), fourth child of Philip and Dorothy Barnes, was born on March 1, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 9, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education at Carver Vocational Technical High School in Baltimore. Everett enlisted in the United States Marine Corps, was awarded the Expert Marksman Medal, and served his country for four years. Upon his return to Baltimore, he became employed at Port City Press where he started at the bottom and worked his way up to become a Machinist. Everett also enrolled in ITT Technical Institute in the evenings where he graduated with a Certificate in Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Repair.

Sonny made many friends wherever he went and would make anyone he came in contact with laugh at their expense or his own. He could go to any party and get everyone to stop dancing because they would want to gather around him and watch him dance, and he could dance well.

Everett was predeceased by his brother Edward F. White, Sr., and his sister Terry Lee White, and leaves to mourn: his mother, Evangelist Dorothy A. Barnes; his father, Philip A. Barnes; three lovely daughters, Shinaya White, Shanita Allen (Tyrell), and Shaunte' White; his sister, Mrs. Ernestine Yvonne Jones; his brother-in-law, Harold K. Jones Sr.; aunt, Jean E. Robinson; four beautiful grandchildren; niece, Natasha White; nephew, Edward White; god-sister, Denise Jones; a devoted neighborhood friend, Rosie Hope; cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hey Daddy-O, as I used to call you. Its your middle child, Shauny. I miss you so much. I was just sitting here at work thinking about you. I decided to google your name and this is the first site...Where we had your funeral. Words cannot explain the pain I am feeling. I wish I could have a hug and kiss from you once more. I cant though. You are no longer in pain or depressed but now I am.....Why did you leave me so soon. Before we could rebuild. I mean we had taken steps to get there but I need and want more. I love you to pieces...Love Shauny...Twin

“ To the family of Everett C. White,

Please accept my deepest sympathies. May the wonderful memories that you with Everett bring joy to your heart as the days and weeks pass. And may you find comfort in the Holy Scriptures and the resurrection hope.

(Job:14:14 "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory labor I shall wait, until my relief comes."

“ Please be encouraged by what Jesus said at John 6:40 - "For this is the will of my Father that everyone that beholds the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life, and I will resurrect him at the last day." Jesus died so that we can live in paradise. You have my deepest sympathy in the lost of your dear love one.

“ I am so sorry about your loss. Please remember Jesus kind words of promise recorded at John 11:25. There it says: "Jesus said to her: I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." The hope of a resurrection of loved ones that we have lost in death is very real to many Bible readers all over the world. The entire chapter 11 of John relates one such resurrection that occurred in the past. Please read this chapter in times of sadness to receive comfort from Bible. Once again my deepest condolences to the White family at this sad time.
