

Everton R. Holder

August 20, 1965 - December 20, 2006

On December 20, 2006, Everton left this life suddenly from a tragic death. Everton the 7th child of Dudley and Beatrice Holder was born on August 20, 1965 in rural community of Maroon Town in St. James Jamaica. He attended Chatsworth Primary and Maldon secondary school and showed an aptitude of mechanics. In 1989 Everton, also known as Cliffy migrated to the US and sought to make an honest living. First in a factory and then as he joined the team of his brothers in their automotive repair business “Ever Ready Towing and Repairs Service”. Seven years ago he took over as manager of the business, taking things to a higher level of operation. He was an entrepreneur extraordinaire with a heart of a lion, big hopes and dreams. His entrepreneurship skill is exemplified in the way he made business affordable for his clients. Cliff raised his first child Chase as a single parent. He later met and married Tami and he embraced her daughters, Shenell and Tameka as his own. From this marriage there were two children, Everton Junior and Evina. His youngest child John was born later of a different union. His family, customers, friends and acquaintances loved Cliffy. He was a true community spirited person. Part of his contribution to community life was the provision of jobs, shelter for the homeless and feeding of many others on the street. He tried to pass on the values of life instilled by his parents and siblings.
