

Evette Geiger

September 17, 1953 - November 26, 2022

Evette Geiger, daughter of the late Margaret and Otis Geiger was born on September 17, 1953 in Baltimore, MD.

Evette graduated from Edmondson High School then proceeded to attend Providence Hospital where she trained to work as a Radiology Technician. Evette worked at St. Agnes Hospital and finished her career at Johns Hopkins Hospital East Baltimore Medical Center. She went home and became the primary care giver to both her parents until they transitioned. Evette had the opportunity to bond with her nieces and nephews as they visited their grandparents.

Routinely, Evette attended Transfiguration Catholic Community Church. She loved her church and church family. As a Parishioner she held many positions, Eucharistic minister, teacher, and choir member to name a few. Her passion was singing on the choir. She would serenade us at home with some of her favorites such as; "Now Behold The Lamb" and "The Presence of the Lord is Here."

We can recall Evette coming home from church where her spirits would still be on high especially when the choir would sing an upbeat song.

After an extensive battle of Kidney Disease, Evette transitioned.

On November 26, 2022. Evette is reunited with her parents Margaret & Otis, late brother Otis Geiger, Jr. late sister Adrian Geiger.

Evette leave to mourn three siblings; Kevin Janice and Annette Geiger, Aunt Patricia Potter and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends who loved her dearly.
