

Evine lyle

February 25, 1941 - January 15, 2015

EVINE LYLE, daughter of the late William and Magnolia Chambers, was born on February 25, 1941 in Roanoke, Virginia. She departed this life January 15, 2015.

She received her early education at Harrison Elementary in Roanoke, Virginia, later completing her education at Frederick Douglas High School in Baltimore City.

She married the late James Alfred Lyle on October 2nd, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. To that union five children were born, Valerie Y. Lyle, Jerome C. Lyle, Jeffery C. Lyle (deceased), Terry W. Lyle and Ricky D. Lyle.

In 1979 Evine began her career in Early Childhood Development. She worked in Baltimore City Public Schools for twelve years until she began working for YMCA/Emily Price Jones Head Start in 1991 til 2012.

Ms. Lyle really enjoyed working with children. Her devotion and passion was helping them grow to become happy and healthy individuals, giving them love and support. Throughout her career she made numerous friends whom she truly loved and enjoyed.

She had many names from her loving family and friends; Bon, Evi, Fats, Granny and Ms. Lyle. She loved listening to music, watching classic films and cooking. Ms Lyle was known for baking rice/bread pudding and the best candied yams and macaroni & cheese in the world. She also enjoyed long walks during the week and weekend shopping.

She leaves to mourn: three sons, Jerome Sr., Terry Sr. and Ricky; daughter, Valerie; daughter-in-law, Ursula; three sisters, Adelle, Christine, and Glenda; seven grandchildren, Kellei (Pooch), Stephanie, Jerome Jr. (Man), Terry Jr., Mariah, Candisse and Charles; great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Evine Lyle,

Please accept my deepest condolences. May you find comfort by means of the Holy Scriptures, family and friends.

" Jesus said to her; "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25)
