First and foremost I am so sorry for your loss. Eyetta was such an amazing individual and will definitely be missed. She accomplished so much during her lifetime. We spoke a lot about her life quite a bit: She obtained a Bachelor's Degree from Coppin State University which was one of her proudest accomplishments. Eyetta had a long career with the State of Maryland. Her longest career accomplishment was with the Maryland State Department of Juvenile Services - Office of Human Resources. I met her in 2004 when I started working in HR. She had the brightest smile and such a wonderful personality. If you were blessed to meet her you would never forget her and would love her. Even when she retired from our office she would remain a positive force in much of our lives and part of our DJS Family. If you needed assistance with anything she was always there to help you. I do not think "No" was in her vocabulary.

I will miss our conversations, her smile and her continued positivity no matter what life through at her. If you are ever down and you knew Eyetta just think about her and her wonderful smile. Whenever we ended our telephone conversations we always ended with "I love you". Eyetta will be missed so much and will never be forgotten.

I worked with Eyetta Brown as her supervisor during her tenure at the Dept of Juvenile Services Office of Human Resources' Medical Leave Unit. She grew in her role and ultimately excelled, was outstanding in her role ensuring employees ill and absent due to personal medical disability or a work related injury received benefits. She was so professional yet compassionate and empathetic to employees who were eligible for and sought benefits. Because of her knowledge, she trained her colleagues, supervisor and managers in the areas of benefits due employees. Eyetta during her illness was so strong and just was a strong example of faith and trust in God and always with joy and a beautiful smile.

We kept in touch after she retired and she was always available to listen and share a positive message, You are not alone in your grief. All who knew her heavily grieve and will miss her.
