“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family. I could not imagine such a loss, so I ask that you please accept my wholehearted condolences, knowing that I surely could not fully understand how you feel. I would just like to leave you with a comforting scripture that gives us not only hope for the future, but also some relief in our time of mourning. John the 5th chapter, verses 28 and 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." Yes, in the very near future we will have the wonderful opportunity to welcome our dead loved ones who have fallen asleep in death back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29) May the words found in the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences at this most difficult time. The death of a loved one is so hard to come to terms with. No family should have to suffer through such grief. God didnot desire this pain for us, so he took steps to undo what Adam, and Eve brought upon us. By sending his son, Christ Jesus, Jehovah opened up the way for sin and death to release it"s hold over us. Romans 5:18 explains Jehovah"s purpose to us. It says: So then, as through one trespass the result to men of all sorts was condemnation, likewise also through one act of justification the result to men of all sorts is a declaring of them righteous for life. Jesus paid the ransom price with his precious life to buy back what Adam lost for us; everlasting life. As 1st Cor 15:22 promises, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. So that means that Ezarick and countless others have the hope of the ressurection. By exercising faith in that ransom, we can be on hand to welcome our loved ones back from the dead. John 3:16. May Jehovah God and Jesus comfort you, and help you to get through this time of grief.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
