They lived in Ibadan and their union is blessed with three beautiful children: Oluwasemilore, Oluwatomi, and Oluwatamilore. She accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior in 1986 and nevern looked back. Together they worshiped at The Stone Church, Mokola, Ibadan under the leadership of Pastors Alexander amd Abiodun Adegboye and then the Vine Branch Church under the leadership of Pastors Sola and Bridget Kolade where they worshiped until they left Nigeria.

She was an ardent believer in the miraculous healing power of God, a blessing she enjoyed many times over and over again, one of which resulted in her coming to the U.S. for medical care. God graciously made a way for her husband, who left everything behind in Nigeria to care for her, and their children to come and spend the last wonderful year of her life together as a family unit.
